

Questionnaire 1

You do not have to do any research before answering these questions. The answers will not be graded and you do not have to share them with anyone if you do not wish to.

1. When you hear the word "order" what comes to mind?
2. In 1920, when the Constitution of Estonia was adopted, it aimed to remove state decorations from public life (Article 7 stipulates: 'The Republic of Estonia does not bestow orders or medals on its own citizens except servicemen in times of war. Neither have Estonian citizens the right to accept medals or orders of foreign countries.'). Why do you think such a decision was made?
3. Do you think there were other countries that were against orders for their citizens?
4. Name any orders that you know.
5. Which of these orders do you think are made up and have never existed?

| | |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| The Order of the Garter | The Order of the Bath |
| The Order of the Rose | The Order of the Golden Fleece |
| The Order of the Double Dragon | The Order of Albert the Bear |

Questionnaire 2

To be filled in after the visit to the Tallinn Museum of Orders of Knighthood. Can be a joint effort, feel free to complete this with your friends!

1. What different kinds of meaning to the word "order" do you know?

2. In 1920, when the Constitution of Estonia was adopted, it aimed to remove state decorations from public life (Article 7 stipulates: 'The Republic of Estonia does not bestow orders or medals on its own citizens except servicemen in times of war. Neither have Estonian citizens the right to accept medals or orders of foreign countries.'). Why do you think this decision was made, and was it correct? Shortly explain your answer.

3. What other countries do you know that were and are against orders for their citizens in some form or other?

4. Name the orders that you know

5. Do you remember which countries bestow these orders?

| | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| The Order of the Bath | |
| The Order of the Chrysanthemum | |
| The Order of the Double Dragon | |
| The Order of the Bath | |
| The Order of the Golden Fleece | |
| The Order of Albert the Bear | |

6. Which order would you like to receive and why?